Qualifications for the Position:

Make sure you have read the job description then explain why you should be considered for the job for which you are applying. State any information you feel may be helpful to us in considering your application. Include any job related training, apprenticeship, and extracurricular activities (including any received while serving in the military.)

Your statement of qualifications is one of the most important parts of the application; it is an opportunity to sell yourself. Please be thorough. Legibility, grammar and spelling are important considerations in evaluating your qualifications. The more you can relate your experience to the job applied for, the better. This can be typed. (Attaching a resume does not replace your responsibilities for completing this section.)

Employment Experience:

Start with your present or last job and include any job-related military service assignments and volunteer activities.
